Roxbury 15. 1887,

Your postal of the 8 duly came to hand

The "Helping Hand" bought by me is a prototype.

Made in New Bedford by C. Tabor - a very good one - They are admired and sought for and you ought to have had ^{copies} ~~supplies~~ in all the cities, and supplied the want of the people and protracted the profits - I found a copy at the residence of a leading citizen and there ascertain where one could be procured -

Dr. MacLeod.

Dear Sir

While in Paris during the past four months I had a work of my Uncle's cast in Bronze by the best founders. Probably you remember the wax model of Comanche India breaking a wild horse.

I have sent the first proof to the Corcoran Gallery feeling sure the directors will not lose this opportunity of possessing one of my Uncle's best works covers what it has cost to transfer it from the wax model to the bronze; so I must look to future sales for any profit, to pay for the careful study and work which my uncle put on it.

The price is $300.⁰⁰ which just.

I watched the casting from beginning to end and you will find this proof perfect even to the texture of the original.

I know you will give it a good temporary place, and will you be kind enough to inform me of its arrival.

Hoping you are in good health I am

Sincerely Yours

W. K. Bush-Brown
